President's Message

Congratulations to all those associated with organising the recently held Colonial Heritage Ball held at Parramatta Town Hall.

A big thank you to Wendy Richmond and her team of helpers. The hall looked splendid with many people making an effort to dress up mainly in either Regency or colonial attire.

Dave Johnson did a splendid job of co-ordinating the Heritage Ensemble with their fine playing a multitude of tunes, many of which were relatively newish tunes.

It was good to see a number of 'newbies' to the ball assisted by the experienced dancers and trust their enjoyment will see them come back next year.

Seniors Week

The Bush Music Club Senior Bush Band performed for the opening of the Seniors Day event at Addison Road Centre on Tuesday 19 March 2013.

The BMC members who entertained the local Marrickville senior residents included

Bob Vickery (Autoharp), Ron Hicks (Keyboard), Gail Copley (Guitar and Vocals), Bob Foggin (Violin, Harmonica and Vocals), Doug Richardson (Mandolin and Vocals), Max Gregory (Banjo), Bob Bellini (Accordion), Allen Davis (Guitar, Harmonica and Vocals) and our famous poet Eddie Sampson.

We were ably supported by our BMC Secretary, Sandra Nixon, who opened up Hut 44, set up our Bush Music Club Banner, took photographs of the event and had discussions with the Addison Road Centre Committee personnel on behalf of the BMC. The Band was also videoed for Seniors magazine. See our new Youtube channel for the rough video. <https://www.youtube.com/user/BushMusicClubInc>.

The numbers performed included, inter alia, Botany Bay, Along the Road to Gundagai, Click Go the Shears, Danny Boy, Diamantina Drover, The Irish Washerwoman, Duncan, Patsy Fagan, Irish Marches, Flash Jack From Gundagai and Waltzing Matilda.

We have been invited to appear again in 2014 for the 100th anniversary of the Addison Road Centre (which is also the 60th anniversary of the Bush Music Club).

A good time was had by all.

Patricia Early (17.3.1934 – 1.5.2013)

Patricia Early, one of Sydney's best known folk dance teachers, passed away on 1st May at St Joseph's hospice, aged 79. Although she was proud of her Irish heritage, and of being born in Ireland on St Patrick's Day, she was passionate about English Country dance. Lynette Hicks and Noreen Grunseit brought the dances back from England, and the Sydney Playford Dance Group was formed in the '70s by a few people, Patricia among them. When age and ill health meant that Lynette and Noreen could no longer teach, Patricia kept the group going. She also taught English Country dance at Wesley School for Seniors.

Gulgong Folk Festival, at New Year, acquired a reputation as a festival for dancers because Patricia took on the task of getting dance into the program, and organising workshop presenters. She also produced a Music Hall night in the Gulgong Opera House, unearthing some previously unknown talents in many of the performers. But dance was only one of Patricia's interests. She liked singing at sessions, and reciting comic poems - and did so, at Toongabbie Music Club. She played piano accordion and was a member of bush bands for many years. She often entertained in nursing homes, taking her dog (she always had one) along with her. She served some time on the committee of the Folk Federation of NSW.

Besides organising musical afternoons at her home, some years ago she added a second storey, to have a room dedicated to dance. It became an occasional venue for the Playford group, and for social dance gatherings. In the last year of her life it gradually became impossible for her to get up the stairs; but she was still happy for others to dance up there.

Patricia had come home from the hospice for a day or two in March, to spend her birthday at home, and eat and sing with friends - and she regarded that as her "wake". She wanted to be there for it! Nevertheless, more friends gathered at the Bush Music Club, to share memories, and to sing and dance and play, following her funeral at Rookwood Crematorium on 10th May - where, at her request, folk dance and song formed part of the service.

Patricia was very good hearted and gave generously of her time to support folk music and dance in Sydney. She was one of the presenters of the Folk Federation's folk music show, Focus on Folk, on 2MBS-FM (now Fine Music 102.5), and also volunteered at the station. She encouraged others to come forward and develop their skills in many areas including dance teaching. Those few people who might have been disconcerted by her occasionally gruff manner usually found that Patricia would go to great lengths to help and support them. She really did have a heart of gold and will be sadly missed in the Sydney folk scene.

WORTH NOTING

Restructure of the National Folk Festival Team

The Festival has recently said farewell to its Managing Director, Sebastian Flynn, who joined the Festival in early 2010 and has been the MD for the past four festivals. As the end of his contract approached Sebastian decided to return to his home and family in Queensland. The Festival Board thanks Sebastian for getting us through some tough economic times with the 2013 Festival seeing a much welcomed turn-around. Together with the Festival Board and staff (who had to implement and bear the brunt of some tough budget decisions) and gratefully received assistance from the ACT Government, Sebastian and his dedicated team produced a financially successful event this year. We acknowledge and pay tribute to Sebastian, wish him all the best for his future endeavours and hope to see he and his family at future Festivals.

The Board has undertaken a review of the Festival's management team and is delighted to announce that Pam Merrigan is stepping into a new role of Festival Director. The role picks up the overall management of the Festival and combines it with Pam's existing Artistic Program Manager role. Since taking on the role of Artistic Program Manager in mid 2012, Pam has become a vital member of the Festival team and did a wonderful job on this year's Festival program. Pam has a long association with folk music and the folk scene and was the driving force behind the successful Turning Wave Festival. She is ably qualified for her new role.

Pennant Hills Dance Activities

at Pennant Hills Community Centre: (lower, air conditioned hall)

Our group is going from strength to strength, in numbers and enthusiasm, thanks to John, Keith and all our supporters.

In the past few months, we reviewed simple and complex social dances from recent National Folk Festivals, including those featured in competitions, displays and balls.

On Monday 29th April, one of our Heritage Ball practices, we had the pleasure of being taught by our guest from Queensland, renowned dance historian Heather Clarke. Thanks to Wendy Richmond, our teacher for the other Heritage Ball practices. Thanks also to Cathy Richmond, our youngest caller, for helping younger and newer dancers at these practices. We learnt interesting steps, danced Shoe the Donkey and many other dances.

Our programme includes a preview of dances for the Bundanoon DanceFest.

Practise is considered desirable for the Central Coast Ball. Please support those who have worked hard to provide a program full of new challenges, drawn from many dance styles.

On 22nd July we will be selecting from our ever-changing list of favourite dances. We are also planning more Social Dance Mondays with our highly accomplished musicians. Come to our classes to learn the dances and find out more.

SINGABOUT NIGHTS

TRITTON HALL (HUT 44) 8.00 PM – 10.00 PM

FIRST FRIDAY NIGHT (MOSTLY... BARRING — OR DODGING — HOLIDAYS)

“Singabout Night” has been a social night ever since it was to raise funds for the next issue of Singabout Magazine (which now survives as the Mulga Wire folklore insert!).

Now we need to raise the voice – Singing, Reciting ... without resort to music / bulky instruments ... and amplification ... and, especially, with our voice not that of the mass media.

We want to retain a tradition that allowed ordinary Australians to express what they saw of their own lives, as well as what events and phenomena around them meant to their lives. NB: Stated “Topics” are not Holy Writ ... just the start of the conversation!

$5 Donation (... and bring along some tucker to share ... ???)

Here are the fairly general themes for the next couple of Singabout Nights in 2013:

Friday 7 June : “Songs Around the Piano”

Friday 5 July : “The Route March”

With the centenary of Addison Rd Community's birth as an Army Camp ... we should think about the songs of our forces and past wars - as well as those who questioned the justice of it all!

Friday 2 August : “The Four Seasons”

While it's cool enough to even think about them: songs of flood, fire, drought and taming a big country. We might even look for songs about actually enjoying whatever Hughie throws at us!
