Concert Party News

CHRISTMAS PARTY

The BMC Concert Party has been busy over the festive season. The Christmas party was a great success with over 30 musicians and supporters enjoying a night of bush music, light opera, the old piano roll blues, rock and roll and other music which can hardly be described! The food was good and the fun apparent.

ILLAWARRA FOLK FESTIVAL

In January 2014 the Concert Party performed on four separate days at the Illawarra Folk Festival which was held in Bulli. All four of our shows were conducted in the Grandstand Bar and involved Waltz tunes, an Alan Scott tribute, a Singalong session and finally, a session of Jigs and Reels. We were joined on all occasions by some very talented musicians and the Singalong session was packed with everyone in good voice. All persons wishing to join in each session were given sheet music and/or lyrics which added to the enjoyment. Our thanks go out to the organizers and sponsors of the Illawarra Folk Festival for putting on such a delightful event each year. A good time was had by all.

GET WELL WISH FOR EDDY SAMPSON

Eddy Sampson, our resident poet, has been quite sick lately. We miss you, Eddy, and wish you a speedy recovery so that you can be back with us again.

Welcome to the Bush Music Club's 60th year!

This year brings lots of exciting special events with the 60th Anniversary Dinner to be held on 29th March at Ermington Hall. An invitation has been included in this issue and I am really looking forward to meeting you all. Please mark this date in your diary.

The year has started off well with the BMC Monday night Concert Party having performed every day at the recent Illawarra Folk Festival, see their report in this issue. Our year of celebration continues with the Ryebuck Bush Band playing at the February Beecroft dance. This is fitting as Ryebuck started the Beecroft dances over 30 years ago.

Another special event this year are the competitions, the response to every category has been overwhelming. Good luck to all the entrants and I can't wait to dance, sing and play - not only the winners, but all the entries.

I would like to send a get well message to our resident poet, Eddy Sampson, who has been quite sick. Eddy, our thoughts are with you and we all hope that you are well on the road to recovery.

I trust that you all had a relaxing and rejuvenating break over the Christmas period and are ready to get back in the swing and kick your heels up.

Bush Music Club Festival Appearances in 2014

The Bush Music Club will be presenting 3 workshops at the National Folk Festival at Easter. The Songs workshop will be based on the content of Singabout Reprints (songs from 1954 to 1967), the Tunes workshop will be based on the Blue Book & accompanying CD, & the Saplings workshops will teach Bush Music to children daily as part of the Children's festival.

We will also have a presence at Bush Traditions & other festivals over the year. Details will be reported in Mulga Wire, on the eLIST and on our website.

Lola Troy (later Wright) is mentioned in Singabout Vol 1 No 1 (Feb 1956) as contact for the South Coast Group:

"WE CAN'T PICK A NAME", is the sad plaint of leader of the South Coast Group, Lola Troy. "We find it difficult to get the mob assembled for practice because we are so scattered, and because of shift-work. The band members number six, and we have started a folk dancing group. Two of us are going to the North Coast at Xmas, and hope to fossick out an old song or two from some old bullockies. We had a visit from the secretary of an athletic club in Woonona, who was seeking assistance in setting up a similar band to ours, and who also gave us an engagement."
 (Lola Troy, 22 Rawson Street, Coledale N.S.W.)

The Lola Wright Play

Christina Mimmochi & playwright Pat Cranny are writing a musical play about Lola Wright using her own words, and gave us a preview of the first act at the Illawarra Folk Festival. It will also be presented at the National Folk Festival at Easter.

The Life of Lola (working title) is a new verbatim play with music based on the passionate life and times of former Illawarra resident, Lola Wright – teacher, activist, performer, wife, mother, lover. For over forty years, from the 1940s to the 1980s, Lola contributed to the Illawarra's vibrant social history. Whether teaching nursery rhymes to primary students, establishing the South Coast's first bush band, playing piano at local dances, singing The Red Flag at miners' strikes, or leading a sing-along of The Internationale at one of her infamous Oak Flats Keg Nights, Lola's passion for music, and social justice left its mark on all who knew her. This is her story in her own words - and the music that she loved. Supported by the Alistair Hulett Memorial Fund, the Bush Music Club, Illawarra Folk Club, The National Library of Australia and the NSW Teachers Federation

The cast joined by Lola on stage at the Illawarra Folk Festival

Lola was inspired to start a bush band after seeing the Bushwhackers in the play Reedy River in 1954 at the New Theatre, and subsequent visits from The Bushwhackers to the South Coast, where with their help she set up a Bushwhacker's band. Lola's band, The South Coast Bush Band, is significant in that not only was it a pioneering group (the second in Australia) but was also led by a woman, Lola. The band played at Communist Party of Australia gatherings, fundraisers, May Day marches, demos and even Mary Gilmore's 90th birthday party!

The majority of the songs and tunes used in the South Coast Bush Band's repertoire was from BMC sourced material. The band played until c1962 and was well known and significant in the musical history of the Illawarra.

Bush Music Club Annual General Meeting

Location: Hut 44, Addison Road Community Centre

Time: 2pm

Date: Sun 16th March 2014

Worth Noting

Cathy Rytmeister won the inaugural John & Dale Dengate Memorial Parody competition at the Illawarra Folk Festival. She won with a song John loved - Precious Gift (aka The Tony Abbott Song).

Bob Campbell has a new book and CD available. The book, titled Giant's Leap—An Activist Folksinger's Memoir, covers the exciting and optimistic period from WW2 to the end of the seventies and is the first book of a two part memoir and social history.

Vale Bob Ballantine, a Whistle player from Newcastle in the UK, who led many a session in the session bar at the National Folk Festival.

Playford Dancing at the Hut

- Next meeting: Tues 4th February, 7:30pm to 9:30pm
- The Bush Music Club has a new dance activity at Hut 44. Sydney Playford dancing has been in recess, because of Patricia Early's prolonged ill health and then her death.
- But now, thanks to the BMC, it will be taught on the first Tuesday of each month (except January), and there will be live music as often as possible.
- For more information contact Julie Bishop 9524 0247
- Bring your friends along for an enjoyable night of dancing.

Pennant Hills Dance Activities

at Pennant Hills Community Centre: (lower, air conditioned hall)

In December we enjoyed our Christmas party with live music by our BMC musicians, "Urban Scrub". Thirty one dancers enjoyed The Maxina, Margaret's Waltz, The Barmkin, La Russe Quadrille, Lord Lamington's Lament and Golden Wattle Waltz Quadrille along with a wonderful supper. Our thanks to the musicians for playing for us every year.

Our final workshop for the year was a request night where the dancers suggested the program. We danced Gypsy Tap, Swing Waltz, Twelvesome Reel, Postie's Jig, Love'Em and Leave 'Em and Virginia Reel.

After our break during January we will return on Monday 3rd February for our first workshop of 2014. As usual, we welcome all levels of dancers and you can join us by yourself or with friends. We will be concentrating on timing during our first three workshops and learning how the movements of a dance fit the phrasing of the music.... and as usual we will have fun doing it and learn some new dances while we are at it.

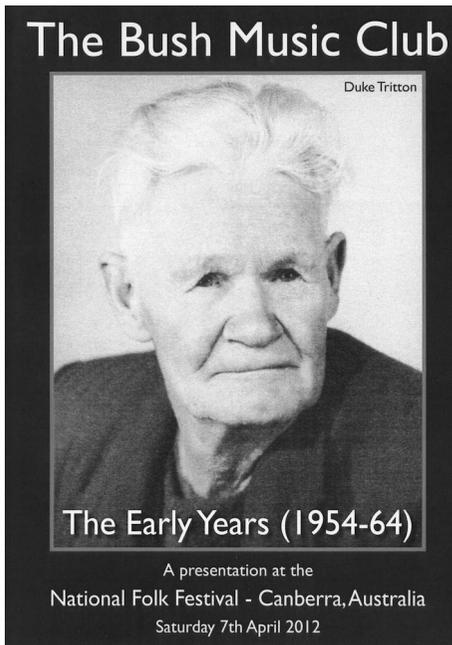

We'll look forward to seeing you. Don't forget your first workshop is free and our hall is air conditioned, so we are always comfortable, no matter how hot the evening. .

The Bush Music is pleased to announce the release of the DVD of

The Bush Music Club - The Early Years (1954-1964). A presentation at the National Folk Festival - Canberra, Australia. Saturday 7th April 2012

In the lead up to the Bush Music Club's 60th Anniversary in 2014, we take you on a trip down memory lane to the days when the Australian folk song "The Drover's Dream" was on the top of the Hit Parade. It all began in 1952 when John Meredith and several friends (aka the Heathcote Bushwhackers) started performing the songs they remembered from their earlier years. In 1953 they joined the cast of Reedy River and contributed to the great success of it's Sydney run. By 1954 the Bushwhackers were so popular that they founded the Bush Music Club to cater for all the aspiring "Bushwhackers", with the aim of re-popularising Australian folk songs and encouraging the composition of new songs contemporary in theme & traditional in style. Within a few years there were Bushwhacker-style bands across the country and Australian Bush Music was born.

Cast includes Alex Hood, Bill Scott, Bob Bolton, Chloe and Jason Roweth, Chris Woodland, Dave Johnson, Frank Maher, Helen Romeo, Margaret Walters, Rob Willis, Silvia Salisbury and the Sydney Trade Union Choir. Reminiscences from those who were there, songs, tunes, dances plus archival recordings and historic photos help tell the story.

This DVD is available for $20 (including postage within Australia)
