President's Message

Welcome to the other side of Covid!!!

This has been a long haul for everyone and I hope that you are all safe and well.

The Pennant Hills Dance Workshops and Beecroft Family Dances will recommence soon – the Dance Workshop on 3rd May and Beecroft on 5th June – and this can't come quickly enough. Be sure to note these dates in your diaries and polish your dancing shoes ready to hit the dance floor!!

Festivals are also slowly returning with the National presenting a 2 day festival in Queanbeyan over the Easter weekend, the Kangaroo Valley Festival will be held 15-17 October 2021 and the Sydney Folk Festival is being held on 13-15 August 2021 (see items in MW). After this past year of lockdown and no festivals it will be good to be amongst it again.

The BMC AGM has come around again and will be held on Saturday, 24th April 2021 at 2pm. If you are unable to attend please complete the Proxy Form inside and forward to club as indicated on the form.

I would like to thank everyone for their patience and understanding during this difficult time and I look forward to catching up with you soon and, please, stay safe!

For 12 years Ross Fear has presented all Australian music on the show including blues, roots, folk & cool country, instrumental jazz and alt rock. It includes live music gig guide segments.

Over the years the show has featured a number of Australian bush, folk and acoustic artists including The Bushwackers, the Bush Music Club, The Bottlers, Toongabbie Music Club, Medusa's Wake, Parramatta Hills Ukulele Network, Mike McClellan, Folk Federation NSW, Captain Match Box Whoopie Band, Fairlight Folk Lounge, Pete McMahon, Central Coast Ukulele & Folk Festival, Mirrabooka, Pat Drummond, Wheelers & Dealers, Kevin Johnson, Jack Pledge, Diana Anaid, Macquarie Towns Folk Club, The Water Runners, 8 Ball Aitken, Ami Williamson, Northern Beaches Music Festival, Bill Chambers, Mick Conway, Christeen Wheeler, Phyl Lobl, Wheeze & Suck Band, Russell Neal, Karen Lynne, and many more.

Ross has made a point of staying informed of what our club is doing and including that in his gig guide, as well as having some members of the Concert Party (limited by studio space) in as guests.

Song of a Sock

Anon

*Knitted in the tram-car,
Knitted in the street,
Knitted by the fireside,
Knitted in the heat,
Knitted in Australia
Where the wattle grows,
Sent to you in France dear,
Just to warm your toes.
Knitted by the seaside,
Knitted in the train,
Knitted in the sunshine,
Knitted in the rain.
Knitted here and knitted there
With the glad refrain,
'May the one who wears them
Come back to us again.*

(This poem was found in a pair of socks sent to Australian soldiers.)

Dancing Returns to the BMC!

Now that restrictions on dancing have been lifted we are bringing back our dancing activities. First to start will be Pennant Hill Dance Workshop and Playford (English Country) dancing in our Hut at Addison Road. Both will restart in May.

The first Beecroft dance will be held in June.

Participants will notice a few changes:

- Participants will be required to write their name and contact phone number on an attendance list.
- Hand sanitiser will be available
- Dancers may like to wear gloves
- A communal supper will not be provided. There will be hot water available but you need to bring everything else including your own cup.
- Numbers may need to be limited. We are not anticipating a problem at Beecroft or Pennant Hills, but it would be best to pre-book if attending Playford.
- There may be some changes to the dances selected to enable social distancing to be maintained.

Festivals in 2021

Many festivals have had to be cancelled, but the following ones are going ahead.

Sydney Folk Festival

13-15 August

<https://www.facebook.com/SydneyFolkFest/>

Presented by the Folk Federation of NSW and taking place in the heart of Sydney's CBD the Sydney Folk Festival is a three-day celebration of folk music and culture embracing traditions old and new from our own backyard to those from across the world.

Folk by the Sea

25 September

<https://www.folkbythesea.com.au/>

This will be a smaller one day festival this year and is being called "Folk With a View". It is being held in a single venue, the Kiama Showground Pavilion. Ticket only entry.

Kangaroo Valley Folk Festival

15-17 October

<https://www.kangaroovalleyfolkfestival.com.au/>

Music, dance and poetry in the picturesque Kangaroo Valley.

- Annual reports
- Election of Office Bearers
- Proposed Revised Constitution

Proposal for Revised Constitution

Our current constitution dates back to 1990 and since then Fair Trading has made significant changes to their model constitution. We therefore felt it was time to revise our constitution so that it aligns with the current model constitution.

The main areas where we needed to retain parts of our old constitution were in membership and our financial year.

We have also made provision for electronic meetings.

A copy of the proposed constitution may be found on our website and a copy will be available for viewing at Hut 44.

Concert Party News

The BMC Concert Party group is meeting every Monday night again. There is also a Slow Session earlier on Monday Night coordinated by George Bolliger.

We have a core group of about 8 regulars and on most nights that has increased to 12 - 14. Everyone has improved playing as it's a concentrated effort with no singing and fewer numbers than before Covid-19. There is no slacking and we get stuck into it... Numbers in the hut are limited so make sure you book if wanting to attend!

We miss sorely Ralph and Eric who in previous times were our musical leaders so fortunately George Bolliger has stepped up to the mark as stand in musical director. We have started selecting a dance tune set each week, which maybe was not played much in the past, and spend about 15 minutes practicing, playing and learning that set. Everyone agrees that this extra practice has been very beneficial.

Thanks to all attendees and especially to the "Core" group of regulars who have been along every week.

It's also been really nice to have met some new "Old BMC members" who have come along for an occasional musical fix, that has also added to the enjoyment.

From my perspective it's been great running the sessions and learning new music and dance tunes, I can now actually play the Jacaranda set without totally stuffing it up...

John Burch

Concert Party will be playing for the Beecroft Dance in June.

SINGABOUT

MARCH 2021

1919

While looking at various items related to the Spanish Flu pandemic in 1918/19 I came across an interesting poem about a strike. The strike referred to was the 1919 Seamen's Union Strike, about which solidarity.net.au says the following:

The biggest strike of 1919 was the Seamen's Union strike between May and August. While pay and conditions were central to the strike, it was also a strike directly concerned with the risk that influenza posed to seafarers.

The poem refers to Mr Millen who was Edward Millen, Minister for Repatriation and Leader of the Government in the Senate. Millen, with Acting Prime Minister W. A. Watt, brought about the end of the strike while Prime Minister Billy Hughes was overseas.

The poem also refers to Tom Walsh who was born in Ireland in 1871 and, as general secretary of the Seamen's Union, organised the 1919 strike for which he served three months in gaol.

Locking up Walsh didn't stop the strike but it did eventually end, in some places sooner than others, with the Union getting some of the conditions they were seeking met. Accommodation on the ships was somewhat improved, they got a pay rise and some better conditions regarding illness.

Untitled Poem

The strike is off, the strike is on;
The strike is going, the strike is gone,
And back to work will the seamen go
(At least they say that it will be so),
And Mr. Millen says he dunno
Whether they won't or whether they will,
For the strike is over, and going still.

The steam is up and the fires are out,
And no one knows what it's all about.
The cause of Liberty cannot fail.
Whilst brave Tom Walsh is secure in gaol.
And Millen waits for the Sydney mail,
And all Australia's murmuring, "Wow!"
I wonder whether they're striking now.

The seamen whisper, with secret lips
"Do they really mean us to man the ships?
Do we still keep on with the funny old strike.
Or work or idle as we may like.
Or back to yacker full promptly hike?"
And half their officers answer "Yea."
But the other half is hollering "Nay."

And the ships lie idle, with rusting screws,
While Millen radios out to Hughes,
"We've a nice little strike on our hands to-day;
Shall we keep it, Bill, 'till you come this way?
Whatever you like! It's for you to say."
And who knows whether to weep or scoff,
At a strike that's on and is also off.

Published in the Advocate, Burnie, Tas, 27 Aug 1919, p4.
Retrieved from Trove: <https://trove.nla.gov.au>

Post war patriotism was also prominent in 1919. There was quite an outcry when an anti-war poem was published in Labour Call resulting in public apologies and a change of management of the publication. Poems like the following were better received:

A Poem.

(Dedicated to Lieut.-General Sir W. R. Birdwood).

Who was the man who led his men
In the charge at the Dardanelles?
And proved his able leadership,
As history now tells.

The man who spoke in a voice so calm,
As he dashed across the sand,
Out of "Dead Man's Gully"
And into "No Man's Land."

The first to climb the parapet—
His sword he grasped in his right hand
"Come on !" he said, and high and clear
Rang out the words of that command.

And who was the man who urged his men,
When footsore, weary, tired, and lame,
And never once was known to shirk ?
Ah! shirking wasn't Birdwood's game.

He never gave a thought to rank :
He fought with privates side by side.
And how those soldiers honored him—
For him they would have gladly died.

War Lords then thought the scheme no good
Trying to beat the crafty Turk,
So Birdwood must evacuate' .
And try his hand at other work.

But he'd been out there long enough
To give old Fritz a nasty smack,
And every soldier in the Force .
Said, "He is the soul of Anzac,"

And then again when out in France,
He led the way 'gainst fearful odds.
The battle line he formed stood there
Unbent and firm as iron rods.

He was the man when leaving France
Those soldiers carried shoulder high—
Yes, carried like some mighty King
As wild cheers fairly rent the sky.

He smiled at them—he tried to speak
But failed—the men to him were dear,
And from his eye, before the throng,
He wiped away a silent tear.

They cheered again, he waved his hand,
The car moved off, and he was gone.
The soldiers stood with bowed down heads
And looked a picture most forlorn.

They had loved him —how they loved him !
And their hearts all throbbed with pain,
With their parting scarcely over,
They longed to meet him once again.

He was just a British General,
But I think those soldiers knew
That the heart that beat 'neath that khaki coat
Was true—true—true.

Vera Wallace.
Lemana Junction.

Published in the Circular Head Chronicle (Stanley, Tas.), 12 Nov 1919, P3
Retrieved from Trove: <https://trove.nla.gov.au>

The final selection are a couple of much more light hearted items published in the Sydney Stock and Station Journal, 24 Jan 1919, P2 These were also found on Trove.

The first is a poem translated from Chinese and the second is a tale of a city girl's encounter with rural life. No authors given.

A CHINESE POEM

Families when a child is born
Want it to be intelligent.
I, through intelligence
Having wrecked my whole life,
Only hope the baby will prove
Ignorant and stupid.
Then he will crown a tranquil life
By becoming a Cabinet Minister.

— 'A Hundred and Seventy Chinese Poems.' Translated by Arthur Waley.

A simple maid from the city,
engaged to a farmer bold,
went down to pay him a visit
on the old farm, I've been told.

She saw him place a door knob right under a trusting hen, and when she had realised what he had done,
these words she said right then:

"I'm only a girl from the city,
my age is just seventeen,
and let me tell you, mister,
that's the wickedest thing I've seen!

Take back your engagement ring,
you cruellest of men!
For what chance has a chicken with a man who can fool a hen?
